OUR PHILOSOPHY:

PRACTICE v COMPETITION

At Club Savannah Volleyball, we believe that true mastery comes from focused practice, not just playing in games.

Think of it this way: Practice is for building skills, and competition is for using them.

Our practices are highly structured and organized to give players the maximum number of repetitions. This focused approach allows your child to build muscle memory, so skills become automatic. This is the only way to get better, faster, and more confident on the court. We create a safe environment where players can make mistakes and learn from them without the pressure of a game.

Games are exciting and fun, but they are not the best place to develop skills. The pressure to win can make players afraid to try new things, and there aren't enough opportunities to repeat a skill to build that muscle memory.

Our philosophy is simple: By dedicating most of our time to purposeful practice, our athletes develop a strong, fundamental foundation. This prepares them to perform their best in games and truly master the sport.
